

Do You Know What Your Credit Report Is Saying About You?

The most frequent question we are being asked right now: “What items are showing up on my credit report?”

Even if you are not going to move or refinance anytime soon, this is an important question. For most people, the biggest contributing factor toward their ability to secure credit for large purchases is their credit score.

Here are some tips to make sure your credit score continues to help you:

- Talk to your lenders and creditors: make arrangements before problems arise.
- Pay what you can: you have heard “better late than never,” but in the credit world we say, “better something, than nothing.” Pay any amount you and the lender or creditor agree upon.
- Stay up to date on your credit reports: call or text us. We can help you.
